

You Ain't Going Nowhere Bob Dylan 1967

Get the groove: /G x 4 ; Calypso strum D.DU.UDu @ 90bpm.

G Am
Clouds so swift, the rain won't lift
C G
The gates won't close, the railings froze
G Am
Get your mind off wintertime
C G
You ain't going nowhere

Ooo-wee, ride me high
Tomorrow's the day my bride's gonna come
Oh-oh-oh-oh, are we gonna fly
Down in the easy chair

I don't care how many letters they sent
The morning came and the morning went
Pick up your money; pack up your tent,
You ain't going nowhere

Ooo-wee...

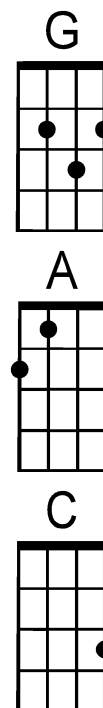

Buy me a flute and a gun that shoots
Tailgates and substitutes
Strap yourself to the tree with roots
You ain't going nowhere

Ooo-wee...

Genghis Khan he could not keep
All his kings supplied with sleep
We'll climb that hill no matter how steep
When we get up to it

Ooo-wee...

(Vocal Only) Ooo-wee...

You Ain't Going Nowhere is an amiable product of recording sessions – collectively known as the Basement Tapes – recorded by Dylan and 'The Band' under a house called 'The Big Pink' which they rented near Woodstock, NY, in 1967 after Dylan's burned out and withdrew from public life in July 1966. The Byrds covered it in 1968 on a country rock album. Dylan himself released it in 1971 (Greatest Hits) then 1976 (Basement Tapes).
