

Don't Think Twice (It's Alright) by Dylan 1962

/C                      /G                      /Am   /F
It ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
/F              /                      /C      /G
It don't matter, anyhow
/C                      /G                      /Am   /D7
An' it ain't no use to sit and wonder why, babe
/D7      /                      /G
If you don't know by now
                    /C                      /C7
When your rooster crows at the break of dawn
/F                      /D7
Look out your window and I'll be gone
/C                      /G                      /Am   /F
You're the reason I'm travelling on
/C                      /G                      /C
Don't think twice, it's alright

It ain't no use in turnin' on your light, babe
That light I never knowed
An' it ain't no use in turnin' on your light, babe
I'm on the dark side of the road
Still I wish there was somethin' you would do or say
To try and make me change my mind and stay
We never did too much talkin' anyway
Don't think twice it's alright

It ain't no use in callin' out my name, babe
Like you never did before
And it ain't no use in callin' out my name, babe
I can't hear you anymore
I'm a thinkin' and a-wond'rin' walkin' all the way down the road
I once loved a woman, a child I'm told
I gave her my heart but she wanted my soul
Don't think twice, it's alright

This was Dylan's first 'love' song, written after his girlfriend Suzy Rotolo - whose family took her off to Italy in the Summer of 1962 to get her away from Dylan - found an Italian boyfriend. Rotolo had been the political muse of Dylan's early protest songs and appeared with him on the cover of 'The Freewheelin' Bob Dylan' (Dylan's 2nd album).
